

"THE BUSY CORNER"

S. Kann Sons & Co.

8TH ST. AND PENNA. AVE.

OPEN, 8:30 A. M. CLOSE, 5:30 P. M.

NOW IN PROGRESS

Kann's Final Reduction Sale

WANTED FURS

With values such as below, representative of the big money-saving opportunities to be found throughout the entire department.

Round Muffs

Choice of Genuine Skunk Muffs
—Black Fox Muffs—Beaver Muffs
—Black Lynx Muffs.
Formerly $39.50 to $49.50.
Choice, each

$22.50

5 Black Fox Sets—3 Red Fox
Sets—1 Taupe Wolf Set—1 Genuine
White Fox Set.
Formerly $45.00 to $52.00.
Choice, set

$29.50

Special Lot Odd Scarfs

Including Mink, Fitch, Beaver, Civet, Black Fox, Natural Raccoon, Mole, Skunk, Dyed Skunk, Dyed Raccoon. Values, $10.00 to $25.00. CHOICE. . .

$5.00

Kann's—Second Floor.

Rathbone Heads Former Cadets.

The Association of Former High School Cadets has elected these officers: Walter C. Rathbone, president; David Bornet, first vice president; W. C. Clarke, second vice president; Frank Marks, third vice president; G. Harvey, treasurer; and J. R. Jones, secretary. An executive committee composed of Frederick M. Pelzman, Dr. Ivan A. Pelzman, Arthur Carr, and G. A. Green has been chosen.

WILL DISCUSS PRECINCT WORK.

Suffragists Will Meet at Mrs. Kerfoot's Home This Morning.

Plans for further organization of bodies representing police precincts in the District will be discussed by members of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage at a meeting this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. John Kerfoot Haywood, 1729 Lanier place northwest. Committees will be appointed for active work among residents of the Tenth precinct.

Miss Margery Ross will be the speaker. Mrs. N. E. Allender is chairman of the work in the District.

Addresses Commerce Class.

Members of the commerce class of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce were addressed yesterday afternoon by W. A. Montavon, commercial attaché at Lima, Peru.

Neuralgia?

"First Aid at Home."

Neuralgia Pain is most agonizing yet you can stop it instantly by applying Sloan's Liniment. Think of Sloan's Liniment whenever you have a pain of any kind. It is a fine Pain Killer. No need to rub it in—you just lay it on and the pain flies away at once.

Sloan's Liniment

KILLS PAIN
"Keep a bottle in your home."
Price 25c. 50c. $1.00

BEST AT
BOURBON Xander's
WHISKIES 909 7th St.
Phone M. 274

Everybody Wins in the "50,000 Club"

MAIL FLAT, NOT ROLLED

The Washington Herald "50,000 Club"

GOOD FOR 1 VOTE SAVE IT

FOR SECTION NO.
Note—This "Vote Credit" is good for the number of votes shown above for the candidate whose name is filled in, when it is received at the "50,000 Club" Dept. THE WASHINGTON HERALD'S "50,000 CLUB."

VOID AFTER FEB. 12th

Entry or Nomination Blank

Good for 1,000 Votes

The Washington Herald "50,000 Club"

WASHINGTON, D. C.

I hereby suggest as a member of your "50,000 Club":

NAME

ADDRESS

SUGGESTED BY

NOTE—Only one entry blank will be accepted for any one candidate.

TEST ON "DRY" ISSUE IS NEAR

Opponents of Sheppard Bill Will Fight for Hearings.

OTHER NEWS OF CAPITAL

President is Asked to Halt Work on Proposed Central Heating and Lighting Plant.

That the first test in the District prohibition fight may come at any time was developed yesterday when it became known that opponents of the Sheppard bill in the Senate will seek to have it re-committed to the District Committee for hearings. Senator Lee, of Maryland, and Senator James, of Kentucky are considering such a move.

The controversy over the proposal to construct a central heating plant reached the White House yesterday, when J. L. Mauran, of St. Louis, president of the American Institute of Architects; J. L. Fenner, of New York, secretary of the same organization, and Charles W. Leavitt, of New York, urged the President to halt the proposed legislation. They were presented by Senator Newland, of Nevada, author of the amendment to the urgent deficiency bill which if adopted would halt the present plans of the Treasury Department.

Merritt O. Chance was confirmed as postmaster of the District and former Postmaster Otto Praeger as second assistant postmaster general at an executive session of the Senate yesterday.

Representative Burke, of Wisconsin, yesterday was named to succeed Representative Eakle, of Texas, on the House District Committee.

Providing for the grading of Massachusetts avenue from Nebraska avenue to the District line, Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, yesterday introduced an amendment to the District bill appropriating $40,000 for the work.

Alexander Graham Bell was named by the Senate yesterday to succeed himself as regent of the Smithsonian Institution.

The subcommittee on deficiencies of the Senate Appropriations Committee was notified by Director Ralph yesterday that the department of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing would be necessary unless additional funds for the purchase of dies and other materials for the Bureau were provided.

URGES LABOR VOTE IN THE HERALD'S CONTEST

Central Union Asks Workmen to Cast All Their Ballots for J. Edward Toone.

The Central Labor Union adopted a resolution last night urging the organized workers of the District to support J. Edward Toone, prominent in labor circles, in the "Herald's Club" contest. Mr. Toone was leading the ninth district at the last meeting.

The union elected John Lorch as delegate to the convention of the Maryland and District Federation of Labor, which meets at Annapolis, Md., the week beginning March 12. It is expected that Mr. Lorch will put before the convention a number of labor questions of local interest, including an employees' compensation act and a child labor law.

To Give Play for War Victims.

"Little Geste, of Robin Hood" is the title of a playlet to be presented by pupils of the Colonial School for Girls on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell in Connecticut avenue, for the benefit of the orphans and destitute in the war zone.

Twentieth Century Club has general supervision of the benefit.

Open 8:45 A. M. Close 5:30 P. M.
LANSBURGH & BRO.
ESTABLISHED 1860.

Sheets, Cases and Domestics

In a Sale Worthy of the Attention of Every Thrifty Housekeeper in Washington.

Sale of Fairhaven Sheets, Extra Fine Quality, Durable and Soft.

63x90 Fairhaven Sheets, single bed, regulation length; 60c value. Special . . .	55c
63x90 Fairhaven Sheets, single bed, extra long; 70c value. Special . . .	62c
72x108 Fairhaven Sheets, double bed, regulation length; 80c value. Special . . .	72c
81x108 Fairhaven Sheets, double bed, extra long; 85c value. Special . . .	75c
81x108 Fairhaven Sheets, double bed, extra long; 90c value. Special . . .	80c
Fairhaven Pillowcases, Made Straight, with Selvedge.
42x36 Pillowcases; 15c value. Special . . .	15c
42x36 Pillowcases; 20c value. Special . . .	17c
42x36 Bolster Cases; 25c value. Special . . .	27c

Main Floor—Lansburgh & Bro.

Get Started

—That's the vital step in saving. This company makes it easy for you to begin—decidedly profitable for you to keep on saving.

Deposits of every size received—Same Rate of Interest Paid on both large and small accounts.

National Savings and Trust Company
Corner 15th and N. Y. Ave.
FIFTIETH YEAR.

CHURCH CLASS WILL DINE.

J. B. McClintic Will Address Members of Christian Organization.

The Timothy Class of Ninth Street Christian Church Sunday School will hold its annual banquet on Tuesday night, February 15, in the church, Ninth and D streets northeast, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Frank A. Carpenter will be toastmaster.

Addresses will be delivered by Representative James B. McClintic; Maj. Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of police, and Rev. George A. Miller, pastor of the church. The class has ninety members.

The committee in charge of the banquet is composed of Dorsey Griffith, V. E. Grotliach, E. H. Smith, F. L. Wright, C. LaPlace, Milton Broome, J. S. Soper, W. E. Brockman, T. Quattrone, Ed Anderson, Guy Kefauver, F. Simkins, King D. Lawder, Roy White, E. W. S. Kerper and Robert Graef.

MICHIGAN ALUMNI HERE HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

President of University and Senators and Representatives Constituted Principal Speakers.

Dr. Harry B. Hutchins, president of the University of Michigan; Senators Thomas and Shafroth, of Colorado; Representatives Taylor, of Colorado, and Smith and Scott, of Michigan; Arthur A. Birney, and Duane E. Fox were among the prominent speakers last night at the annual banquet and business meeting of the Washington Alumni Society of the University of Michigan at Rauscher's.

In addition to those named, those present were: Miss Karoline Klager, Mrs. Rainey, Capt Spaulding, Newton K. Fox, J. W. T. Duval, Miss Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Kral, Mrs. A. H. Walker, Miss Stauffer, Miss Birney, Mrs. Frank Scott, T. E. Hutchins, Mrs. Frank Kelly, Miss Ruth Rizer, C. K. Wead, Miss Katherine Wead, Miss Stevens, Miss Howell, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Peaks, Miss Salisbury, Mr. Reister, Mrs. Nippa, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Beall, Mr. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Porter.

Dr. Lyman Kehler was chosen president of the organization for the coming year. Capt. Thomas Spaulding, first vice president; Dr. R. B. Rizer, second vice president; Dion Breiner, secretary, and Newton Fox, treasurer.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO AID PLANS FOR PENSION

Petworth Organization Seeks Efforts of District Firemen and Policemen Before Congress.

Teh Petworth Women's Club, at a meeting in the Petworth M. E. Church last night pledged its support to the police and firemen in their efforts to secure an adequate pension and retirement law from Congress. A resolution was offered by Mrs. Alfred Norcross and carried with it the provision that the District committees of the House and Senate be asked to take up the bill. The club also indexed the action of the House District Committee, in tabling the plan of the Commissioners to secure control of the local school system. A letter of thanks will be sent to the committee.

Following the business meeting the entertainment committee took charge and presented "A Valentine Party" and a benefit concert. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Ellis Logan, elected parliamentarian of the club. Mrs. Norman N. Hill presided.

MAMMOTH DINNER WILL URGE ARLINGTON BRIDGE

More Than 1,000 Persons from Many Organizations Will Ask Congress for Memorial Today.

More than 1,000 persons of prominence will attend a luncheon to be given this afternoon at 12:45 o'clock at Rauscher's by the Petworth Women's Club. The purpose of the luncheon is to arouse more widespread interest in the proposed memorial bridge over the Potomac River.

An item for the memorial bridge is included in the urgent deficiency bill, which is now in conference. The purpose of the luncheon is to arouse more widespread interest in the proposed memorial bridge over the Potomac River.

Addresses will be delivered by former Senator Marion Butler, of South Carolina; Rev. Dr. M. Wharton, of Baltimore; Representative Benjamin K. Focht, and others.

Twelve Auto Speeders Arrested.

Twelve automobile operators, charged with fast driving, were arrested by police of the Eighth precinct yesterday in one of the busiest round-ups of alleged traffic violators in the precinct this year. Those arrested said they were John Page, 21; Carl W. Case, 27; Guy S. Zepp, 38; Clifton Graft, 27; Charles P. Klenz, 24; Percy C. Stevens, 34; Howard S. Gottlieb, 34; Carl E. Haninger, 25; Archibald, 28; Arnold Tuttle, 25; Fred Loetsch, 45, and Orem Tom, 31.

Mrs. Pankhurst Will Speak Here.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the famous militant English suffragette, will speak here on February 26. She will be accompanied by W. Oheddo Mitajovich, the Serbian Minister. Both will speak at the mass meeting for the Serbian relief mission.

Turner Funeral Today.

Funeral services for Cary S. Turner will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Baptist church at Clarendon, Va. The remains arrived yesterday from Tucson, Ariz.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How to Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will be free and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, sniffling, mucus discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

BOYS MAKE FIRM CADET COMPANY

Alexandria School Board Favors Organization of Military Body There.

ELKS PLAN CELEBRATION

Prominent After-Dinner Speakers Will Address Lodge at Its Fifteenth Birthday Banquet.

THE HERALD BUREAU, H. K. Knight & Son, 625 King street.

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 7.—A military company may be organized among the students of the Alexandria High School. The city school board tonight authorized the faculty of the school to take up the question of the organization of such a company with the pupils at once.

The boys would be compelled to purchase uniforms. Guns and ammunition could be furnished by the government. The question of organizing such a military company was discussed recently at a meeting in the Surprise Theater, under the auspices of the parent-teachers of the school, stated he would be only toward training the boys in the event such a company was organized.

The school board tonight decided to give the pupils in the high school building, at an hour as a recess for luncheon. This will mean that they will be dismissed at 2:30 o'clock every afternoon instead of 3:15 o'clock.

Students in this building, after Tuesday, will bring their luncheon to school. Representatives from Washington, Baltimore and Virginia lodges of Elks will attend the banquet to be given Wednesday night by Alexandria Lodge in the auditorium of its home in observance of its fourteenth anniversary. It is expected that 125 members of the local lodge will attend. Robert S. Barrett, past exalted ruler of the lodge, will be toastmaster.

A list of the speakers and their toasts followed. Representative Jacob E. Meeker, Missouri, "Our Fraternity," Representative Charles C. Carlin, of Virginia, "The Trend of the Times," Representative Samuel J. Nicholls, South Carolina, "The Grand Lodge," Joseph A. Eukler, past exalted ruler, Washington Lodge, No. 15, "Recollections of Fourteen Years Ago," Alfred J. Carr, past exalted ruler, Baltimore Lodge, No. 7, "Baltimore Lodge No. 7, and its 14th Anniversary," James L. Ward, of Washington, district deputy grand exalted ruler, "Our Sister Lodge," Washington, No. 15," James W. Bates, Alexandria, president of the State association of Elks of Virginia, "The State Association," Warren Welford, Roanoke, Va., district deputy exalted, "Virginia Elks," Fred Harper, Lynchburg, Va., chairman of the local home committee, "The New National Home," Jacob Brill, Alexandria, past exalted ruler, Alexandria Lodge, "The Ladies."

A committee composed of James L. Ward, Joseph C. Barrett and August Brill will represent Washington Lodge, Jacob Meyer, exalted ruler of Baltimore Lodge, has appointed Alfred J. Carr to represent him.

Owing to the absence of a quorum, the annual meeting of the trustees of the Alexandria Hospital, which was to be held last night, was adjourned until the first Monday in April.

As a result of being struck by an automobile near Huntley crossing, Alexandria County, last night, Helen Purdy, 9, is at the Alexandria Hospital, suffering from three fractured ribs, a scalp wound and a cut on the lip. The girl was treated by Dr. R. J. Yates. She lives in Del Ray.

Those officers have been elected by the Washington division of Southern Railway Agents, who met yesterday at Manassas: Byrd Leavell, president; Cluipere, E. F. Tiver, vice president; Alexandria; A. H. Hamaker, secretary, Harrisonburg.

The funeral of Arthur L. Thompson, 67, who died at his home at Greenshield Farm, Landover, Md., will take place at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Wheatley's undertaking chapel.

Edwoud Davis, 9, fractured his arm last night as the result of a fall on the ice near the Rockwell street. He was treated by Dr. Walter A. Warfield.

A petition will be presented to the city council tomorrow night, asking that the city purchase a new apparatus for the Relief Hook and Ladder Company.

One thousand feet of lumber, consisting of flooring, fencing and posts, stolen from Herfurth Brothers last night, was found on a lot near St. Asaph and Wythe streets.

Melvin C. Bowie, 5, died early this morning, following a short illness, at the home of his parents, 904 Gibson street.

An entertainment was given tonight in the Young People's Building, under the auspices of the Willard W. C. T. U.

WILL PENSION CLERGYMEN.

Episcopal Church Soon to Adopt Aid System for Retired Ministers.

The Episcopal Church is about to place in effect a contributory system of pensions for retired clergymen, according to announcement made by Bishop Alfred Harding. His statement follows in part: "The church is contributing to the pension of the retired clergyman by the payment by the parish each year of an additional 7 per cent, speaking roughly, of the minister's salary he will receive, on retiring at sixty-eight, a pension equal to one-half his average salary during his active service," he added. "At death, his widow and minor children will receive annual pensions, if disabled in active service, a pension follows."

Taxi Hits Policeman.

Policeman J. M. Horton, of the Fourth precinct, riding a motorcycle, was struck by a taxi-cab in Virginia avenue near Third street southwest, last night. His machine was damaged and he was injured slightly.

More Relief for Belgians.

Several additional cases of shoes and garments for the suffering children of war-devastated Belgium probably will be shipped this week by the District Committee for Belgian Relief, according to announcement by Mrs. John A. Logan, chairman of the body.

Confederate Sons Meet Tonight.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans, Camp 205, will meet at the Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock. W. A. Cosmo, historian of the chapter, will deliver the third of a series of lectures.

Greek Reservists Called.

Athens, Feb. 7.—King Constantine today signed a decree calling the colored members of all classes from 1832 to 1854 inclusive.

AUTO DRIVER EXONERATED.

Edwin C. Holle Held blameless for Accident in Which One Was Killed.

Edwin C. Holle, 21, of Norfolk, Va., driver of the automobile wrecked in Maryland early Sunday morning, when one man was killed and Holle and another occupant were injured, was exonerated by a coroner's jury which last night at Bladenburg held an inquest into the accident. A deposition was taken from Holle, who is in Casualty Hospital.

Irving Owens, 24, a clerk in the confectionary shop adjoining Poll's Theater, was instantly killed in the accident. Hubert A. Moore, 29, of Mebane, N. C., was seriously injured. He was taken to Casualty Hospital with a fractured skull and has not regained consciousness since the accident. Physicians say his recovery is doubtful. Holle, whose injuries are superficial, gave his testimony for the inquest in an affidavit. The inquest was held before Justice A. H. Dahler, of Baldensburg.

Purely Personal

George H. MacDonald, attorney and member of the Washington Board of Trade, is ill at his home. He probably will be able to resume his work the latter part of the week.

Sidney H. Hull has received an appointment as a laboratory assistant in the Bureau of Standards.

E. L. Thurston, superintendent of schools, is out of the city for a few days on business.

George H. Bacon has been elected to membership in the Washington Board of Trade.

Thomas P. Porter has been appointed to a clerkship in the Bureau of Navigation.

Arthur R. Eno has been appointed to a position in the laboratory of the Bureau of Standards.

William W. Bridge, of Chevy Chase, recently called from New York for London where he will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Lee Hunter, of Charlotte, N. C., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Myer, in Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Henry D. Williams, of New York City, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Gill, in Chevy Chase, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Mary Ward Burr, of Brookland, is visiting friends in Takahatch, Fla.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald, of Albany, N. Y., is the house guest of Miss Octavia Woodward.

Miss Nellie Clymer, of Baltimore, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Waters, of Brookland.

Joseph L. Baumer, of Brookland, is visiting his brother, Sevier Baumer, at Nashville.

William T. Dougherty, of this city, will spend a few days in Virginia the latter part of the week.

Commissioner Louis Brownlow left yesterday on a short trip into Virginia.

President John I. Vinney and Secretary John F. Locke, of the Chamber of Commerce (Va.) Chamber of Commerce, are in Washington attending the sessions of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

En route from New York to New Orleans, Mrs. William W. Geraldine, of Nashville, Tenn., spent the week end with friends in Washington.

Rev. Paul, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, has returned from New York, where he has been treated for the effects of an accident last fall in which he was thrown from a motorcycle.

Miss Blanche Miller, stenographer in the office of the "Herald," who has been sick several days ago, is reported much improved.

Cotter T. Bridge, of the Exotic Board, who went to New York last week to see his son on the latter's way to Europe, is back at his desk in the District Building.

E. V. Richardson, of the United States consular service, is in Washington awaiting assignment from the State Department. He is staying at 1124 Vermont avenue northwest.

Chauncey D. Snow, of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, who was in the department from an inspection trip through the South. He spent most of the time at New Orleans.

Isaac W. Shoemaker, of the Bureau of Crop Estimates, is on annual leave. Dr. H. F. Moore, Assistant Commissioner of Fisheries, will visit Cornell University next week to lecture at a "farmers' week" conference on "The Planting of Fish on Farms."

Second Lieut. William Williams, who recently was relieved from duty at the Treasury Department, has gone to New York for a short stay, prior to going to Mobile to join the cutter Tallapoosa, to which he has been assigned.

Miss Helen Jolliffe, of London, an English suffragette organizer, who has been a guest here of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, will sail tomorrow on the Pacific to take up relief work abroad.

Harry Newman, an officer of the National Training School for Boys, and Mrs. V. J. Walton, of Landover, were married on Saturday at the home of the sister of the bride, Mrs. Charles Crandall, 1511 Mosher street, Baltimore. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Newman returned to Landover.

Mrs. Virginia Stewart, well known as a nurse of Washington, is visiting friends near Mt. Vernon, Va.

Commander-in-chief B. H. Warner, of the Patriotic Legion, will leave tomorrow night for Miami, Fla., where he will spend several weeks.

M. Brooks & Co.

The Women's Store 1109 G Street

Sale of New Spring Waists

We were fortunate enough to secure a magnificent sample line of waists. They are in the cleverest Spring Styles and all the good materials including heavy crepe de chine, Radium Silk, Pussy Willow Silk, dainty French organdies and real linen.

They Are Divided Into Three Lots

$1.00 $1.98 $2.98

Values from $2.00 to $5.00

When you see these beautiful waists you will want several of them. Entire stock goes on sale this morning.

DEFENSE BILLS PASS HOUSE UNANIMOUSLY